

My name's Rowan Gaddis. I'm a 25 year old Ojai local, and I have been playing the mandolin for 15 years and jamming with the old time fiddlers for the past 3, loving every second of it.

In this time I have of course done everything one could do wrong, fumbling through all manner of notes, sour and sweet, just trying to find my place in the song. But the journey has been thrilling, and now that I have honed in on the patterns of sweetness, I would love to share this knowledge with you and help you to find your own song! The mandolin holds a simple beauty unparalleled by any instrument I have yet played, and I highly recommend it to any lover of music.

I am open to lessons over Zoom or in person (whatever you're comfortable with) $25/half hour or $50/hour

So give me a ring or email and let's get jamming!
